

Group 7

Remote that allows user to click a button and sends a notification to company that will send a worker to help.

Walky Talkys that will specifically connect with company to get assistance.

Switch - When turned on, a signal is sent out to communicate with business of there location and that they need service.

Smart watch that can reach out to others for assistance.

Tablet will track data and remember for easier access for user.

Tablet that can communicate with the phone application as an option to notify company for assistance.

- Possibly placed in community homes for elderly or disable people.

This is the tablet and phone idea combined. They can communicate with each other for user preference.

Phone application that they would be able to download and use. Will send notification to worker that they are requiring a service.